

Instruction
User want to search for sources.	Give list of sources that suits user's needs along with their title, link and publication info.
User is asking further detail for a sources.	Give back the source's title, link, publication info, abstract and cited by count.
User is asking for something outside of searching for sources.	Find the answer from context and give it to the user along with the context's source title and link.